2022 Patriotic Education Schedule

YOUTH LEADERSHIP EDUCATION

MOWW conducts two types of annual events for secondary school students – Youth Leadership Conferences (YLC) for sophomores and juniors and Youth Leadership Seminars (YLS) for secondary school students. Both event types are annually submitted and approved as satisfying the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP) educational and program standards and are listed on the NASSP School Activity List.

YLCs are multi-day events with a curriculum focused on Leadership (50%), American Heritage & Patriotism (30%) and Free Enterprise System (20%). They vary in event duration and depth of treatment of subjects within a curriculum focus, typically include team projects and activities, presenting results, public speaking, and may include writing.

Youth Leadership Seminars (YLS) are annual one-day events that focus on YLC curriculum to lesser depth than a YLC or may specialize focus to a particular patriotic education topic, e.g., the judiciary, law & order.

The schedules below, YLC first then YLS, list the events we annually conduct in chronological order. Our events will adhere to all federal, state and local COVID restrictions. The schedules are annotated in the event code column to reflect potential cancellation or other limitation expected (e.g., virtual only, in person only). Cancelled events are planned to occur on or about the same date in the following year. The online schedule will be updated to reflect changes to the schedules.

MOWW conducts a national cash-prize competition, the Phoenician Essay Contest, for students who attended a YLC in the preceding YLC cycle. The essay is an opinion-essay on a given patriotic or national topic determined by MOWW. Details about the contest will be provided via the student's YLC Director and sponsoring Chapter.
